ABOUT PRIVATE LIMITED COMPANY

The Private Limited Company is one of the most famous business legal forms in India preferred by Indian start-ups

It is suitable for those entities/ start-ups which are into expansion and growth phase of the business journey.

We all know the importance of funds in a business life cycle, registering as a business type of Private Limited Company opens up a gateway that enables an entity to raise equity funding from potential investors.

There are number of characteristics which a private limited company enjoys such as a private limited company is a separate legal entity in the eyes of laws and the shareholders are liable to the extent of their shares contribution only.

Being a separate legal entity and perpetual succession a private limited company will not be affected with the change in ownership, there is a famous saying in this regard:-

“The directors and members may come and go but the existence of the company remains forever”

The working in a private ltd company is more transparent as in comparison to other business entities as the management is separate from shareholders. A shareholder can invest its funds in a fruitful business without managing it& a management can operate their business without frequent interruption of investors.

5 Benefits Of a private limited company

1. Easy to form

Time taken in incorporation of a private limited company is comparatively lesser than registration of partnership firm or incorporation of LLP.

2. Easy Funding

A private limited company as a business type makes it easy to raise an equity funding from the angel investors or from other financial institution in comparison to other business forms.

3. Recognition under GOI Startup India Scheme

Government of India launches the Startup India scheme to promote the Indian startups. One of the key condition to avail benefits of scheme is Startup must be a private limited company incorporated on or after 1st April, 2016. Key Benefits of scheme are: -
